COHORT 1
2019

TorahAnytime
records Torah lectures given around the world and distributes them through multiple digital platforms.

NechamaComfort
supports families through the trauma of miscarriage, stillbirth, or infant loss.

WorkAtIt
places teens into safe vocational settings, building skills and confidence for a brighter future.

GrowTorah
develops educational Torah garden programs for Jewish schools and communal organizations.

IMADI
empowers individuals facing mental health difficulties, through support, guidance, and education.

COHORT II
2020

DailyGiving

is a platform where you sign up and are guaranteed the mitzvah of Tzedakah every day for as little as $1 a day.

Chinuch Yehudi

educates Israelis about the critical need of providing children with a Jewish day school education and assist them, financially and otherwise, to transfer to Orthodox Jewish day schools.

Ani Tefillah

is a curriculum for school-age children, to imbue the process of prayer with deeper meaning and connection.

CCSA

brings awareness, education, prevention and programming regarding substance abuse and addiction to Jewish communities.

COHORT III
2021

PENIMI
focuses on confronting contemporary challenges facing Jewish youth who are growing up in the Digital Age.

MyTzedakah
empowers the next generation of Jewish donors to be active charitable givers.

Last Kindness
is stemming the rise in cremation amongst American Jewry through awareness, education, and practical assistance.

TIBC
is a virtual Beit Midrash for college students with the motivation and need for a community of spiritual growth and Torah study.

ATARA
provides Torah-observant women opportunities to express creativity, advance professionally, and connect to a like-minded community.

Torah Live
is an educational platform for children to craft their own journey through Torah learning gamification.

